

Food Safety News

Breaking news for everyone's consumption

With print publishing falling out of favor and more and more people turning to the Web for instant information, Food Safety News is in a unique position to deliver your message to the people charged with the safety of our food supply.

Food Safety News reaches your customers' email every day, and because food safety issues don't take the day off, Food Safety News doesn't either. It's a publication that digs deep into the important issues that too many are afraid to touch.

Food Safety News is the ONLY daily publication focusing exclusively on food safety.

We're the first to talk with the key people behind breaking news, and the first to write about important food safety solutions.

Our readers look to Food Safety News for early updates on what's going on in Washington and for exclusive interviews with government and food industry leaders responsible for protecting the nation's food supply.

Food Safety News brings our readers the kind of old-fashioned, in-depth news coverage that many people thought didn't exist anymore. And it's focused on just one, very important issue: Food Safety.

Focus on Food Safety:

Delivering in-depth news coverage on food recalls, outbreaks, policy and more!

The staff of Food Safety News is a talented, award-winning group of journalists who pursue their craft with a singular passion. Together we produce a daily, Web-based publication dedicated to reporting on issues surrounding food safety.

We have created one place that pulls it all together for the food safety community and fills a void in our food safety system. It is about using the Web to put as much food safety information in one place as is possible. We provide timely reporting on food safety issues with contributed articles from leaders in government, the food industry, academia and the non-profit sector, and other food safety authorities.

Dan Flynn, Food Safety News Editor-in-Chief

DENVER, COLORADO

Email—dflynn@foodsafetynews.com

Dan Flynn is a Denver-based writer and editor with more than ten years of food safety experience. As a public affairs professional, he worked with government and regulatory agencies at the local, state, and federal levels. His career as a journalist included working for newspapers throughout the West, from the Black Hills to Seattle. His on-scene reporting on the collapse of Idaho's Teton Dam and the suicide bombing at Washington State University's Perham Hall was carried by newspapers around the world and both stories were recognized regionally by the Associated Press for Best Reporting on a Deadline. Most of the disasters he attends these days involve food illnesses.

MARKETING WITH FOOD SAFETY NEWS

Food Safety News, believing firmly that access to a strong and involved readership is the most critical part of what we have to offer, limits the number of ads per issue. The homepage has space for just five button-style ads and one premium banner-style ad which is placed run-of-site. All other pages feature the top two homepage ad placements (Prime #1 and #2) and bottom banner. We offer a special premium positioned banner ad with our emailed daily headlines.

Food Safety News publishes daily, Monday through Sunday, even on major holidays. If news breaks on holidays, we're there with the latest news and updates. You can select advertising options ranging from specific day to monthly, quarterly, semi-annual and annual programs, depending on availability.

The specific day option allows you to run your ad every week on a selected day with a minimum one month purchase. Want to run your ad every Monday morning? This is the program for you.

Monthly programs cover 4 weeks. Quarterly programs are 3 full months and semi-annual programs are 6 full months.

FOOD SAFETY NEWS RULES THE SOCIAL MEDIA SCENE

Measuring readership today is far more than looking at a simple audited statement. With the fast-growing number of information sources available – print, on-line, social media – trying to find the right data to back up your media buy is increasingly complex.

Food Safety News has over 15,000 email subscribers, but our daily traffic counts go far beyond that. The answer might be in our dominance of social media. We have over eighty-four times the Facebook 'likes' as our next nearest competitor and almost four times as many Twitter followers. It's a testament to the importance of our news coverage

There is no other publication, print or online, that has the impact enjoyed by Food Safety News. It's where the most important people in business, government and academia come first for the important news they need to start their day, every day. It's where your marketing message should be.
